Famous Dubrovnik people

Ivan Gundulić (1589-1638) was born in Dubrovnik, as the oldest son of Fran Gundulić and Dživa Gradić. He was educated in Dubrovnik, and after that he became a member of the Grand Council in 1608.

Twice, in 1615 and 1619, he was a rector in Konavle. In Dubrovnik he performed mainly the jobs of a lawyer. He received the nickname Mačica (which means a small cat), because he lived a peaceful and with drawn life. In 1628, he married Nika Sorkočević with whom he had three sons.

His literary work began with his dramas written in verses, and probably with poems. The most common verse in Gundulić's works is the octosyllable, and the most common stanza is the quatrain, however other forms also appear (the double dodecasyllable in rhyme).

Ivan Gundulić earned literary fame even during his lifetime, while in the revival period he received the status of a canonical writer of old Croatian literature. His most famous works are Dubravka, Osman and Tears of the Prodigal Son.

Given that he died at the age of 48, he missed the opportunity of being chosen as the rector of the Dubrovnik Republic, because only those older than 50 years of age could be chosen as rectors.
